KRAZY KAT in "PIG STYLES"

Produced by Charles B. Mintz Distributed by Paramount

Krazy Kat is in the perfume business. He gets an idea to sell perfume to the pigs. He starts out with his samples and tries to interest various pigs in the pen. The pigs refuse to be refreshed and Krazy Kat concocts a scheme and sneaks up on the pigs while they are not looking and with a spray gun he starts shooting the perfume at the pigs.

They are not aware of the change until the Father pig comes home and fails to recognize the usual odor. He is surprised and accuses the other pigs of reforming. They swear innocence. Krazy Kat in the meantime had been hiding and they cannot account for the sudden change.

Suddenly, he is spied and the pigs all make a dash for him. He tries to explain but they don't let him. They pull out their screw tails and screw Krazy Kat down to a tree. While they are preparing the torture, he moves away with the tree. He digs his way underground and when he thinks his escape is complete, he comes up through the ground right into the pen of the seething pigs. They all jump on him and neat him up.
